SECOND TRANSNATIONAL SET2CLIL PROJECT MEETING

On June 23rd – 24th in Targu Mures, Romania, Fundatia Professional hosted the second SET2CLIL Project transnational meeting.

The focus was on the first intellectual project output to be provided – SET2CLIL Curriculum. Discussed were the structure, content and principles for the curriculum development - goals, target groups, modular content, focus and duration of the modules. The experience and the expertise of the partners in the process of different levels of training/education were to contribute to the development of such curriculum enabling a time-saving training course, but also one to ensure the acquisition of skills and competences valid at European level.

The partners from Bulgaria, Romania, Turkey, Spain and the Republic of Ireland participated in sessions with local teachers and bilingual teachers and young people, attracted by the idea of getting involved in social entrepreneurship. Discussions on SE as an opportunity for the young people and trends and challenges in the field of CLIL followed. The participants shared experience and good practices.
